On April 7, 2005, Hiro H. Uttamchandani was sentenced by the Honorable Robert Clive Jones, Designated Judge, U.S. District Court of Guam, for Giving Bribes to an Agent of an Organization Receiving Federal Funds, in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 666(a)(2). He was sentenced to a six-month imprisonment term, followed by a supervised release term of two years. The conditions of his supervised release include that he shall not possess a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or any other dangerous weapon; cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer; comply with the standard conditions of supervised release as set forth by the U.S. Sentencing Commission; refrain from the consumption of any and all alcohol; participate in a program approved by the U.S. Probation Office for substance abuse, which program may include testing to determine whether the defendant has reverted to the use of drugs or alcohol, and make co-payments at a rate to be determined by the U.S. Probation Office; permit the probation officer access to any and all financial documents and records; and pay a special assessment fee of $100.

Mr. Uttamchandani's supervised release term commenced on August 25, 2005. He is requesting the Court's permission to travel to Bombay, India, for the medical management of multi-level cervical spine degeneration joint diseases, disc herniation (C3-4) and stenosis complicated with radiculopathy and occipital neuralgia. He is currently under the medical care of Dr. Vincent A. Duenas from the Doctors' Clinic, whose letter is attached. Mr. Uttamchandani is scheduled to depart Guam on April 14, 2006 and return on May 30, 2006.
